

WHAT DO BOX TURTLES EAT?

Box turtles are omnivores, allowing them to feed on a variety of different food items, including both plants and animals.

J.D. Wilson

Insects & Worms

Mushrooms

Berries

They are most commonly seen eating: insects and worms, mushrooms (even poisonous ones), and berries. Although not a regular food source, they have been seen feeding on dead animals they have crossed paths with.